

What Style!

The Performers:

Gillian Eastoe was named in the Australian Book of Rock 'n' Roll as a top performer in the late 70's & early 80's with her band "Gillian Eastoe and King Dog" which featured Phil Emmanuel on guitar. She has performed on stage with R & R greats including Tom Waits, Jimmy Barnes, Rose Tattoo, Air Supply and Jon English and featured on countless TV shows such as Countdown & Nightmoves.

As a children's performer, Gillian has recorded and performed extensively with ABC for students and tours nationally with her four shows for schools.

Gillian is accompanied by Terry Murray on Guitar.

English born, Terry Murray's musical experience covers all styles and mediums including film, theatre, television and radio. He has toured Europe with The Four Tops, The Temptations and Hot Chocolate and has recorded film scores with the London Symphony Orchestra.

The Performance:

Gillian combines her vast experience in radio, television and live music with a vibrant personality and outstanding talent to light up every face in your school – from Prep to Principal!

Using a popular nursery rhyme, favourite songs from her albums, props, costumes and a succession of eager volunteers, she improvises her way through a diversity of musical styles including blues, opera, country, punk, jazz, pop, rock and rap and more.

"What energy!" "What appeal!" "What humour!" "What Style", The doubters were soon eating out of her hands, begging to be involved and learning all the way through enjoyment."
