

Inka Marka

The mystical sound of ancient Inka Rhythms

The Inka Marka sound is one of Ancient rhythms and Inka Mysticism. Pan flutes dance with the vibrant charango and wistful quena anchored by the guitar, bass violin and goatskin drum.

And the music is just the beginning...!

Inka Marka combines traditional Andean costumes, dance, musical performances and background information to deliver a complete dynamic and interactive educational package.

They take their audience on a musical voyage to Latin America to experience first hand the exciting rhythms and dances of the Inka Culture. Tested, approved and structured lesson plans, enable Inka Marka to maximize available session times, creating a fully integrated, enthralling and educational experience for all participants

Inka Marka are one of Australia's best known and respected ethnic folk groups performing regularly in schools, festivals and cultural and corporate functions around Australia and the world. Formed more than a decade ago in Sydney by Jose' Diaz, Orlando Arias and Michel Bestrin the band has grown to include six full time members committed to bringing their love of traditional Andean music to Australia and the world.

With seven albums to their name, including the ARIA nominated Auki Auki and performances from Port Fairy to Brunei, from Singapore to Texas, Inka Marka are truly world class musicians.

“Very enthusiastic! Our students loved the performance. Many of them got up and started dancing about 2 minutes into the first song. Some students were invited to get up onstage and play with the band which they loved. Teachers enjoyed the performance very much too. Some asked where the CDs were.” Ballarat Specialist School
