

Bold as Brass

The Performance: BOLD AS BRASS present a hilarious hour of highly engaging and participatory music taking students through the ins and out of brass instruments, a journey through the styles of music and music from around the world.

The concert features each of the instruments, the Spanish Bullfighter, The Russian Sabre Dance and the FAMOUS tuba solo by Rossini – Largo al Factotum.

Led by “Dancing With The Stars” lead trumpet player, Greg Spence, they will thrill students with their top class playing and MAD antics!!

The Performers: The members of Bold as Brass have been performing for schools around the country and in Singapore for over 15 years. Individually the group has performance credits including Dancing with the Stars, Melbourne Symphony Orchestra and Professional Theatre.

As well as being highly skilled musicians and hilarious entertainers, the members of the group are all trained music educators.

Cost: $6.00 + GST per students Minimum: 140 students ($840 + GST)

Bookings & Enquiries:

Nexus Arts www.nexusarts.com.au

(Ph) 03 9528 3416 (Freecall) 1800 675 897 (Fax) 03 9523 6866

(Email) nexusarts@netspace.net.au

Bold as Brass Feedback:

"Concert was fabulous. Professional, fun & very informative. Student response has been great!! Thank you!!"

"Lots of great feedback from students & supervising teachers"

"Students were highly engaged"

"They enjoyed the humour, interaction and 'live' instruments."

"The students responded really well - they were over the moon!"

"Children were very well engaged"

"Many great ideas. Pitched at appropriate levels, which I could adapt for my situation."

"Not just a performance, but excellent musicians with interactive humour and crowd control strategies."

"Interesting, engaging, humorous, interactive."

"The performance was fantastic - the children were captivated by the music and instruments!"

"A complete entertainment package. Great interaction with audience. Enjoyed immensely by students and staff."

"What a stunning concert! Our kids were engaged from start to finish. We definitely want them back next year."

"Some students were inspired enough to ask their parents if they could learn a brass instrument."

"Students particularly enjoyed the presentation."

"The group, as always hit the spot with kids! They are the greatest teaching tool we have!"

"All our students had a wonderful experience."

"Fantastic concert enjoyed by everybody. One of the best."