Art of the Story Pathways to Visual Literacy

"All of your books have walked off the shelves and the children are buzzing about history." - Melinda Ross, St Columba's Primary

"I cannot tell you the level of enthusiasm here at Moriah as a result of your visit! The children SO enjoyed meeting you and hearing your saga of being an author and illustrator, and living in and traveling to faraway places to do your research. My first two classes this morning begged for your books." - Shelly Feit, Librarian, Moriah School of Englewood, New Jersey, USA

THE PERFORMANCE

Find out the true stories of legendary bushrangers, Ned Kelly and Moondyne Joe. Learn about the heroic story of one man and a donkey and a strange twist of fate that brought two boyhood friends together one last time on the battlefields of Gallipoli. A book safari where students will ride on an elephant, swim with great sea turtles, travel to the islands of the Caribbean and to the deserts of the Sahara. Frané is a dynamic presenter and shares with students of all ages the process of writing and illustrating picture books. Her optimism, humour and eye for detail in the wealth of stories she has to tell, is sure to hold any audience captive. She will discuss the origins and inspirations for the idea, the research and the balancing of creative interpretation with historical and cultural authenticity in creating books. Frané will share the process of blending words and art into books that celebrate our past and cultures from around the world. Your students will gain insight into the crafting of narrative through words and images.

Feedback for Frané Lessac

“Frané's approach to the children and the workshop content was well developed and age appropriate. The teachers found it a rare opportunity to work with a professional author, develop their own skills and repertoire of strategies to teaching the writing/illustrating process.”

Paraburdoo District High School, WA

“Fabulous – kids in the palm of her hand, the teachers admired her too! Students enchanted by her stories – fascinated, interested and engaged.”

Toni Henry, Claremont College, Randwick NSW

"It was fabulous! I have had kids and staff constantly singing your praises and asking for your books today!"

Sue Mirow, Maroubra Junction Primary, NSW

"Thanks so much! She was wonderful to deal with, warm and accommodating. The children ranging in age from 5 to 13 were captivated by her stories and loved listening to a real live illustrator! If Frane ever comes over this way again we would love to have her visit again."

Jane Kibble, Timbumburi Public School, NSW
