

Majeda Beatty

MURRI ISLAND GIRL

THE PERFORMER

Taking you on a journey of Australia's First Nation dreamtime through an interactive and vibrant experience, Majeda Beatty presents both Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island cultures as well as sharing her perspective on being an indigenous millennial woman. She believes in the importance of cultural pride and carrying on past traditions as well as moving forward in a modern world.

Majeda is a Sydney based singer, actress and dancer who comes from a proud Wuthathi mother, her roots stemming from Far North Queensland and an African American father. Growing up she was taught the importance of her culture from her mother through movement, song and storytelling. At five years of age Majeda started performing in schools with her family's cultural dance group and over the years her talents have seen her perform over a wide variety of mediums. In recent times she has become well known for her starring role in the ABC3 Drama series 'Ready For This'.

THE PERFORMANCES

FEEDBACK

High school Years 7-10: There was a fantastic response from students – we really noticed that students who are sometimes disengaged loved the audience participation. There was lots of energy with the dancing and music and this was fantastic! Overall all staff and students really enjoyed the performance and we would definitely like to have Majeda back as a performer in following years.

Majeda Beatty came to our school yesterday. She was absolutely brilliant! So full of energy and had our Kindy-Year 6 so engaged for the entire performance. I had plenty of teachers come up to me afterwards telling me that was the best performance they have seen in a long time.

Thanks so much!!
